53

If we work upon marble, it will perish;
if we work upon brass, time will efface
it; if we rear temples, they will crumble into dust; but if we work upon immortal minds, if we imbue them with principals, with the just fear of God and love of our fellowmen, we engrave on those tablets something which will brighten to all eternity.

With real confidence and high hopes, 27 Juniors have completed another never to be forgotten year toward their prospective goal-graduation.

As the Brussels high school doors close behind us for another three months, we look back and see what an important position this year played in our lives. Class rings plus the Prom helped to create this unforgettable Junior term.

With the help of our helpful advisors, Miss Tweet and Mr. McQuoid assisted by Lowell Pavlik; Class President; Joyce Kaye, Vice President; Donna Matzke, Secretary; Lou Ann Pagels, Treasurer; and Pat Alexander, Student Council Representative; we were capable led.

At the second semester we took over charge of the "Nine Till Four" with Carol Meister and Pat Retzlaff, Editor and Assistant Editor respectively.

Outstanding talent overflowed in many different activities. Four of our boys made the "A" team basketball squad, two of our girls represented us at the sectional forensic meet and many took part in dramatics.

Sophomores

At last--a sophomore! One year being completed of the four all-important years of our education, 50 students returned as Sophomores. As the largest class ever to enter Brussels High, we will all strive to continue through our high school years as a large, prosperous class.

On the evening of October first we initiated the Freshmen class into the active way of high school life, with an initiation program and party.

As class officers we elected Bonnie Neinas, President; Janice Delfosse, Vice President; Rodney LeMense, Secretary-Treasurer; and Wayne Rosinsky as our Student Council representative. Miss Rothe and Mr. Buth were our class advisors.

Practically our entire class participated in extra curricular activities of which there are a huge variety. Many participated in Dramatics and Forensics, others in Band, Chorus and Sports.

Our Sophomore class has contributed several outstanding athletes to the field of sports. Watch them during the next two years!

Colleen Moore and Duane Olson represented our class in the Coronation Ball held on Sunday night of the annual Carnival.

As another year has been completed, we see our class, as an ever-rising star, soar to even greater heights than ever before.

FINDERS' KEEPERS'

Under the direction of Mr. David, the one-act play "Finders' Keepers" proved a success.

The cast included M. Willems, L. LeRoy, and D. Matzke.

This play was entered in the one-act play contest at Gibraltar, where it received a "B".

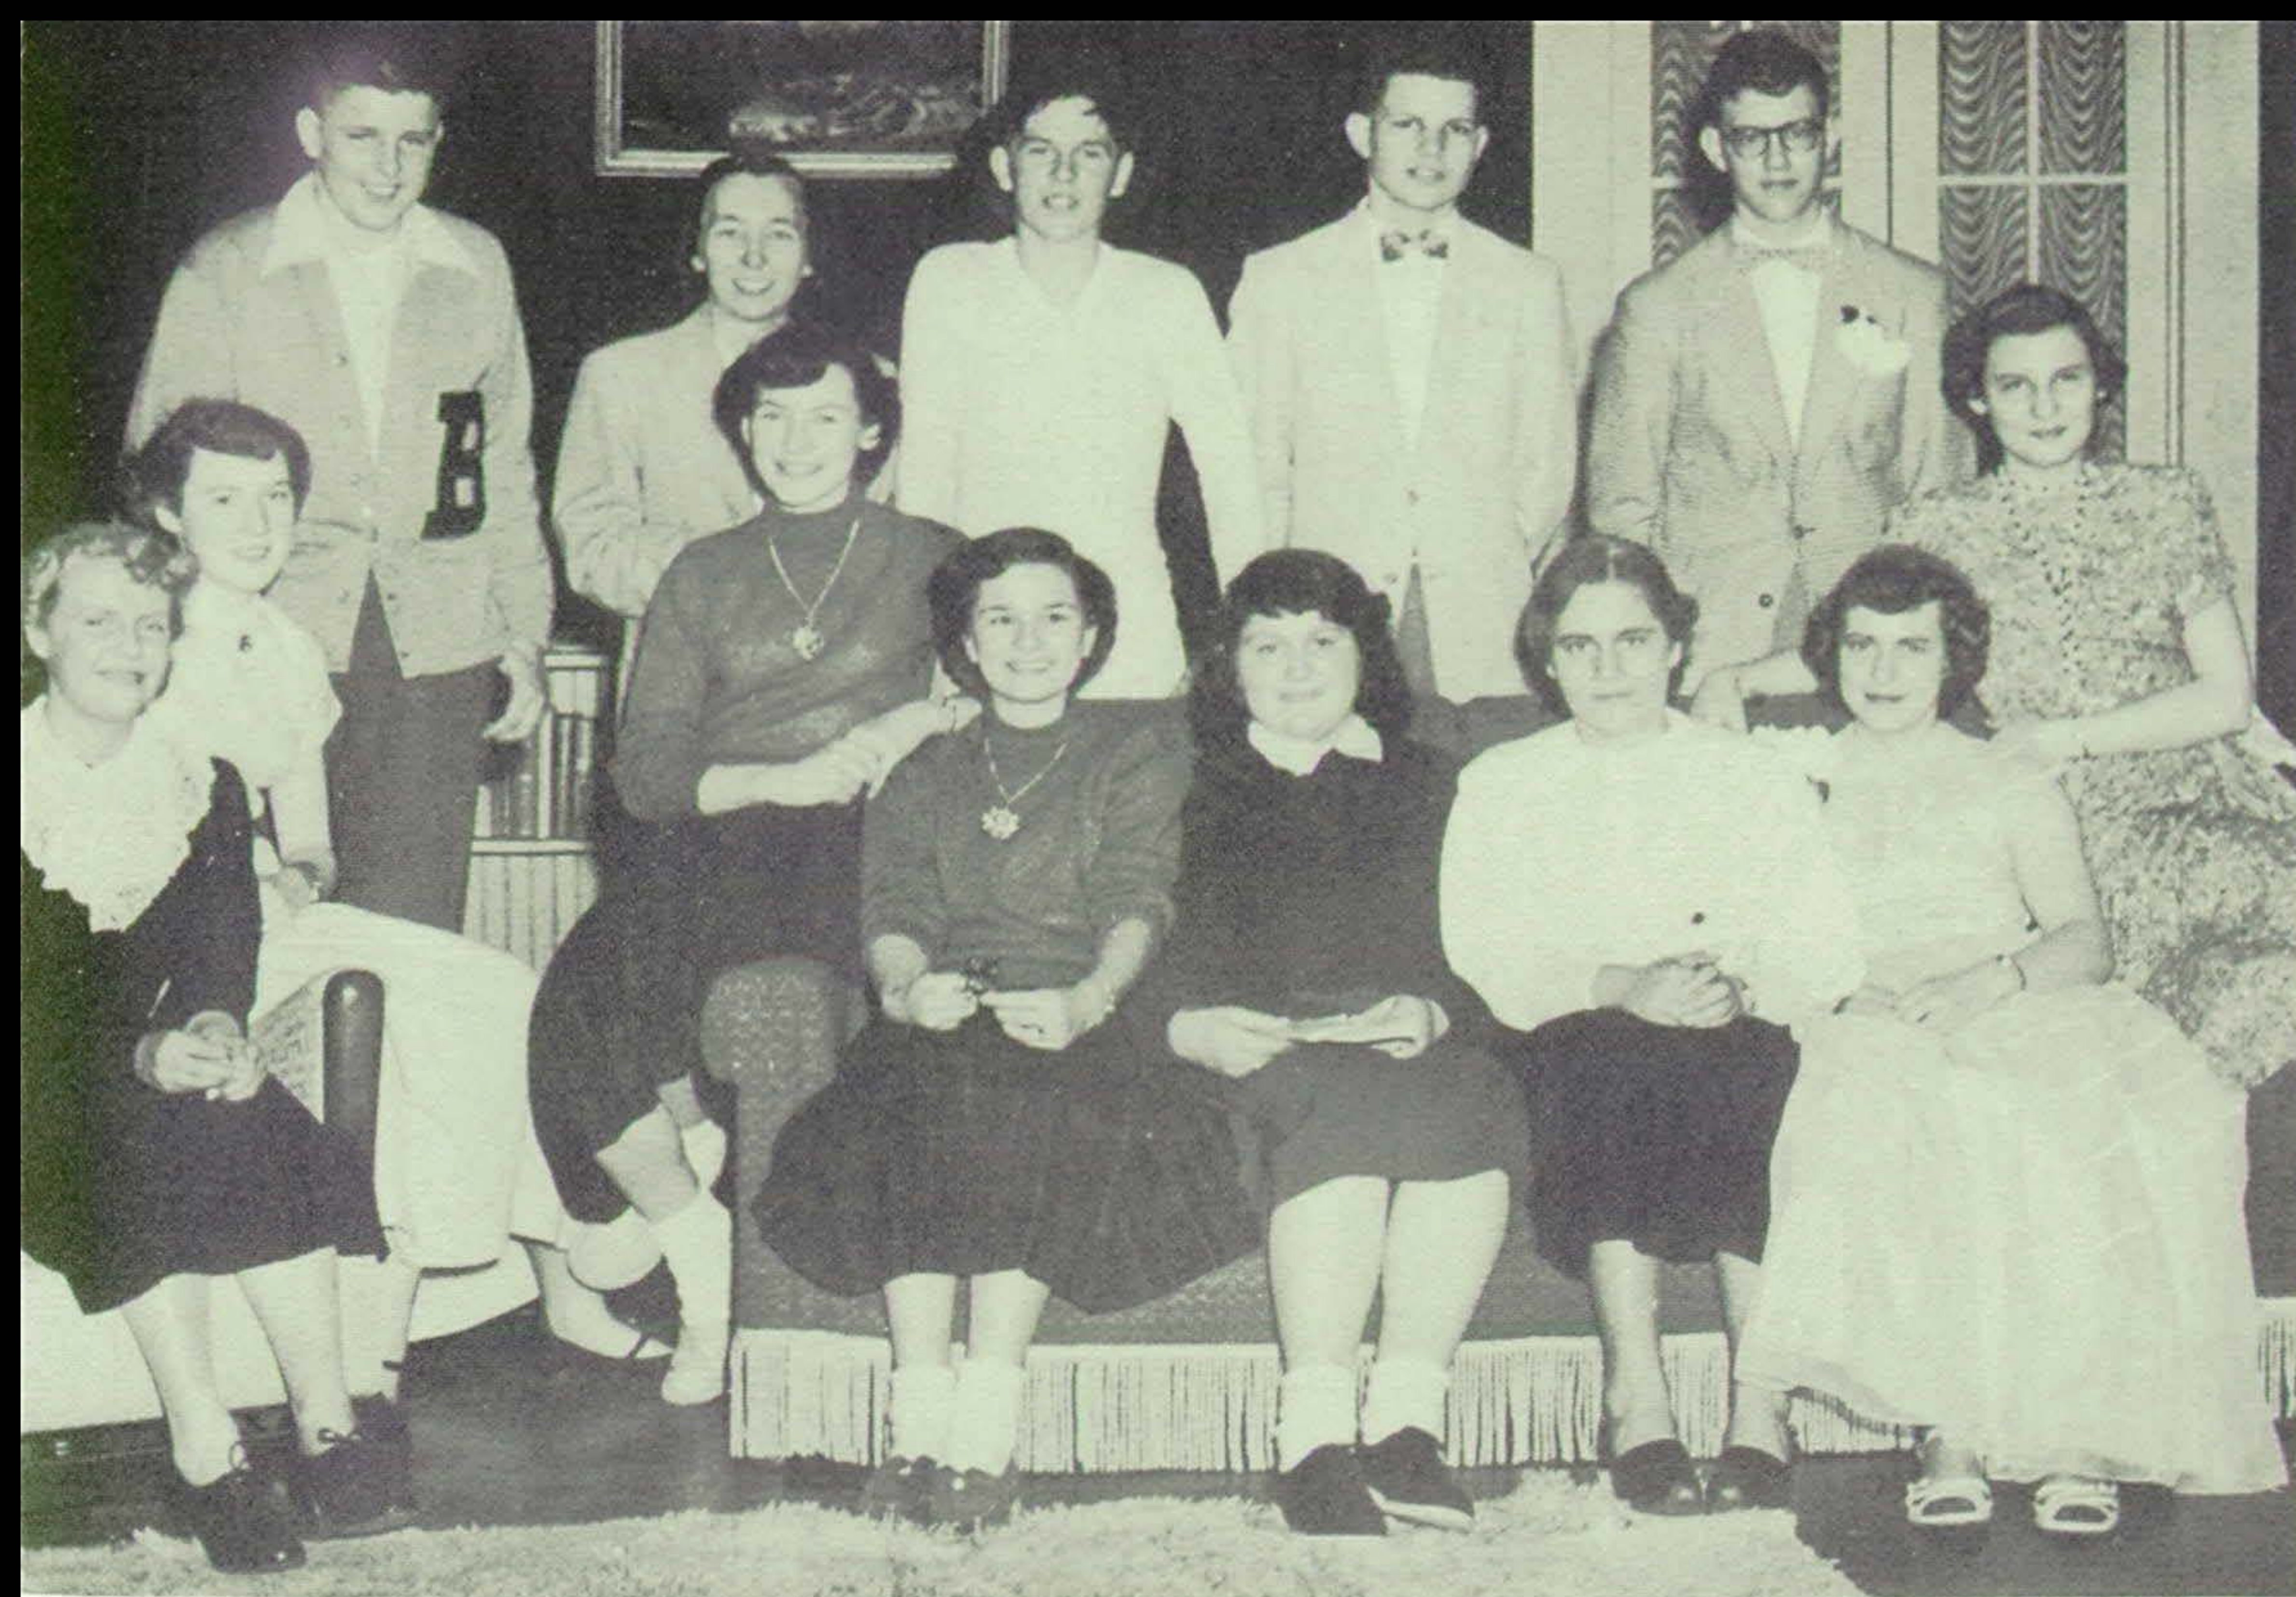

Dramatics

OVER THE TEACUPS

Miss Rothe was director of the one-act play "Over The Teacups."

Cast members were B. Nellis, B. Neinas, J. Kaye, and J. Cumber.

THE INNER WILLY

Instead of an annual all-school play "The Inner Willy" was chosen to be a Freshmen-Sophomore play. This is one way of giving the lower classes an opportunity to test their acting ability. Miss Rothe directed the production.

STRAWS FOR TWO

The Junior class also presented a play for their own benefit.

The play was directed by the class advisor Mr. McQuoid and the student director Marilyn Willems

Nine of our students participated in various divisions of the Forensic Contest this year. These divisions were, serious and humorous declamations, and extemporaneous readings.

Of the original nine girls, five entered the league contest at Luxemburg. Top honors were earned by Bonnie Neinas and Marilyn Willems in the serious division, and Claudette Pierre in the humorous division.

Marilyn Willems represented our school in the state meet at Madison.

Carnival

"I crown thee, Pat Columb, Carnival Queen of 1952," words spoken by Lenius LeRoy, Pat's escort, and King. Again the seniors won the battle of ticket sales. As her princess Pat chose Betty Mathy. Beyy was escorted by Prince, Kenneth Pavlik, of the seventh and eighth grade room. In the court of honor, Joyce Kaye, escorted by Glenn Griep, represented the Junior Class. Sophomore representatives were Colleen Moore, escorted by Duane Olson, and Freshmen, Karen DeNamur and her escort, Donald Lardinois. Nancy LeMense, escorted by Leland Marcelle, were representing the intermediate room, while Maureen Miller and her escort, David Marchant, reigned from the primary grades.

Entertainment continued for the two days of the Carnival. Saturday evening the senior band performed and a cast of four put on a one-act play, "Over the Tea Cups." On Sunday afternoon an amateur contest was held, followed by the second one-act play, "Finders Keepers."

Prom

. Denil, S. Bournoville, D. LaLuzerne, C. DeNamur, R. Hafeman, B. Nellis, G. Doell, M. Splingaire.

A blue and silver ballroom with larger than life silhouettes dancing along the walls replaced the B.H.S. gym on May 2, 1952, the evening of the Jr. Prom.

With the music of Harold Ferron, and the theme of Blue Tango, Donald LaLuzerne crowned Clarice DeNamur as Prom Queen.

The Court of Honor included Merlyn Denil and Shirley Bournoville, Robert Hafeman and Bertha Nellis, Glen Doell and Margie Splingaire, and Linus LeRoy and Mildred Jadin.

STANDING: G. Gustafson, Mrs. Sweeney, P. Columb, J. Rass, Mrs. Brown, S. Bournoville, SEATED: J. Cumber, B. Nellis, S. Lampereur, S. DeBaker.

Nine til Four

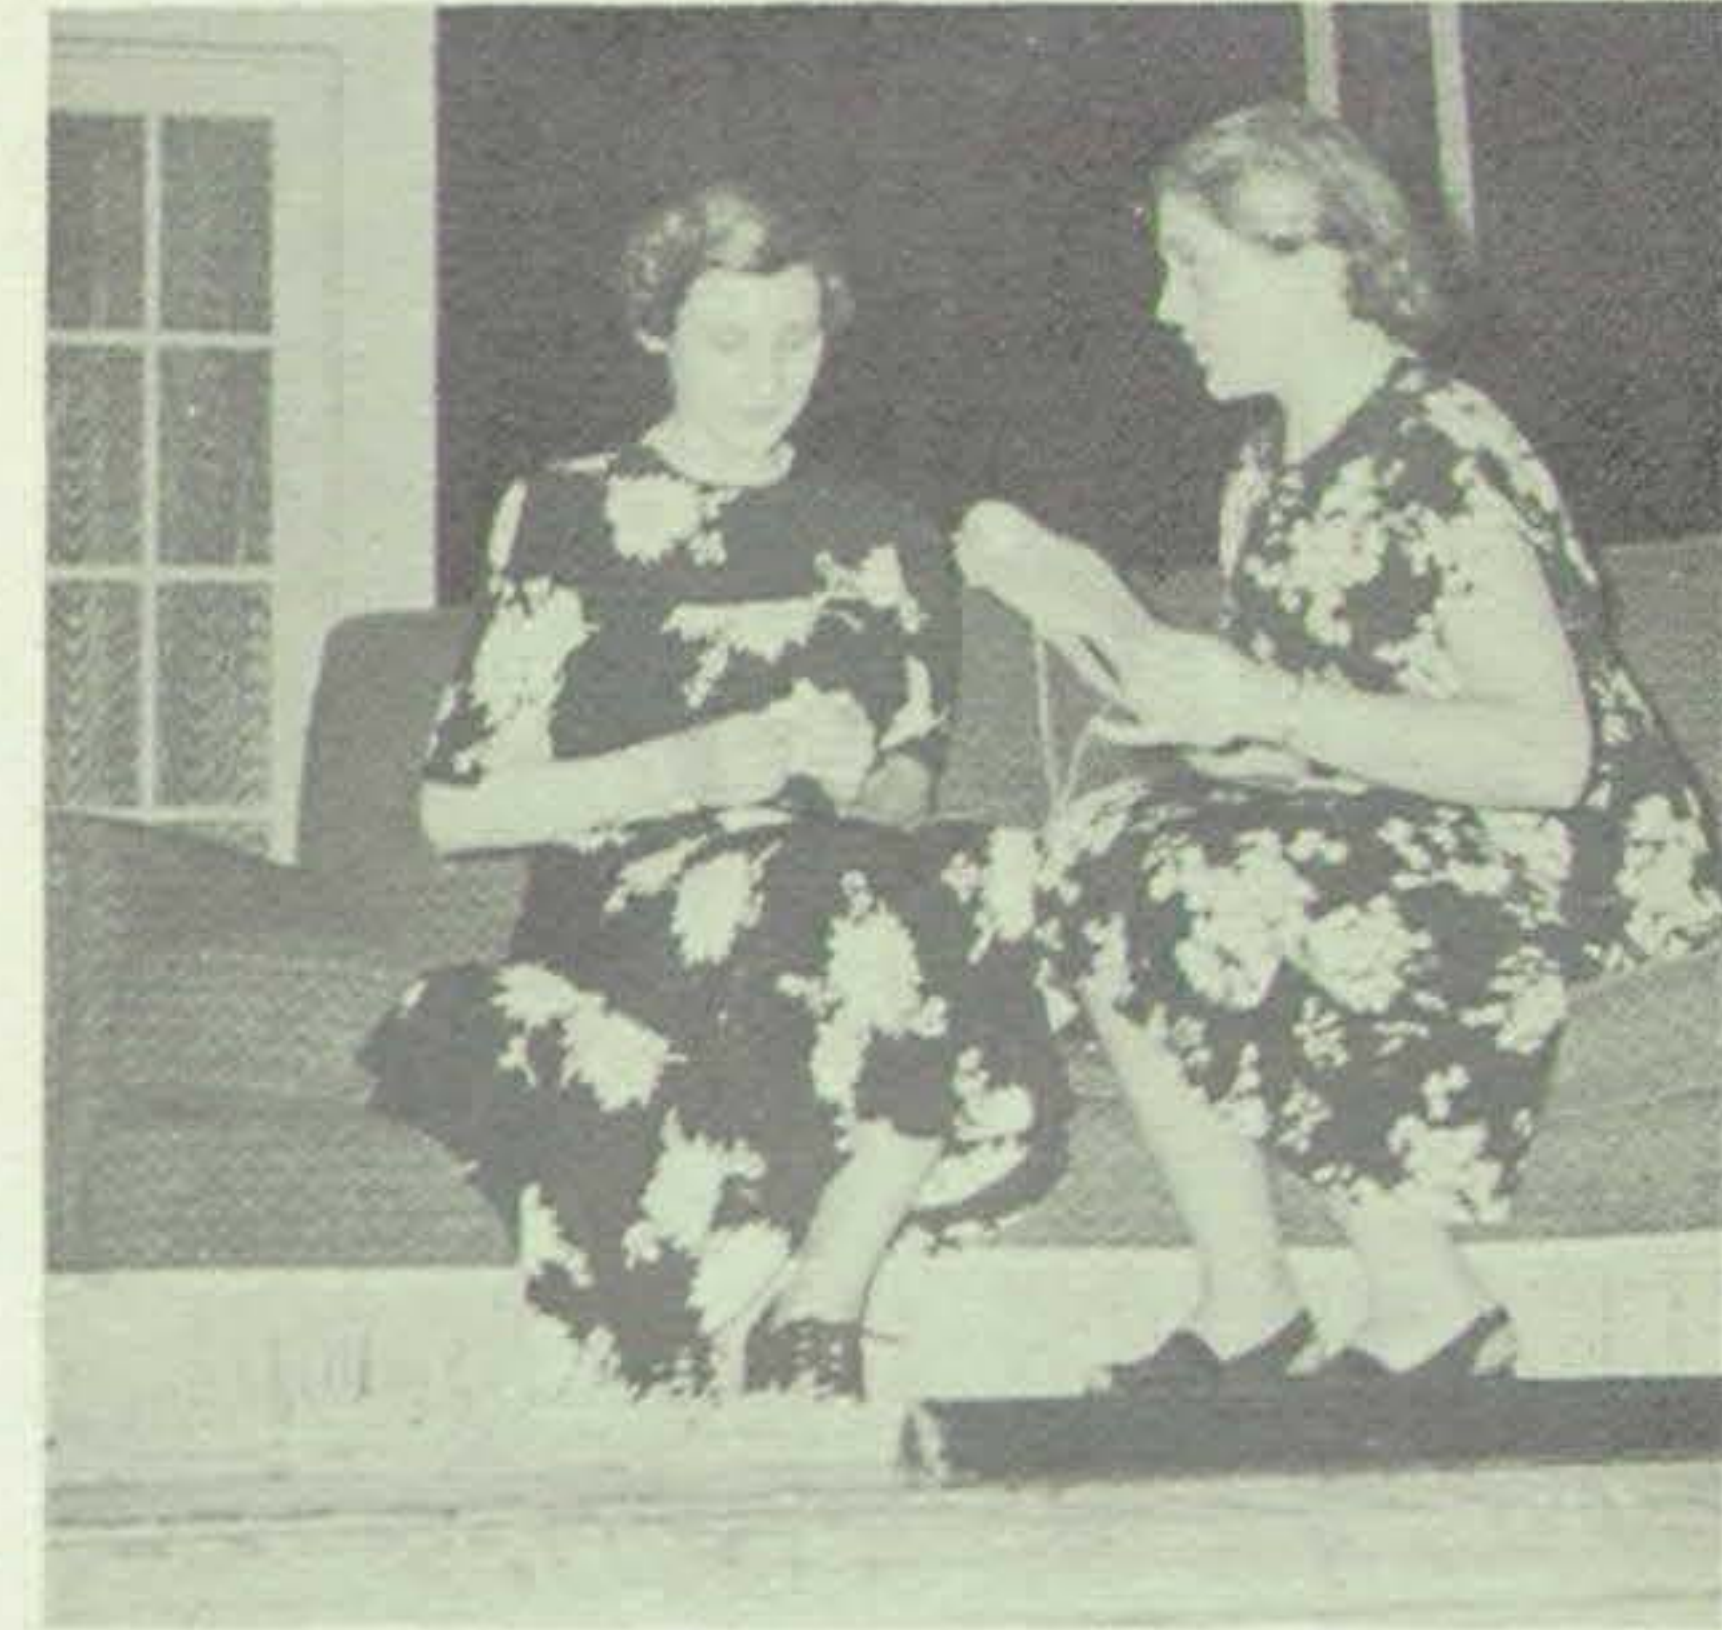

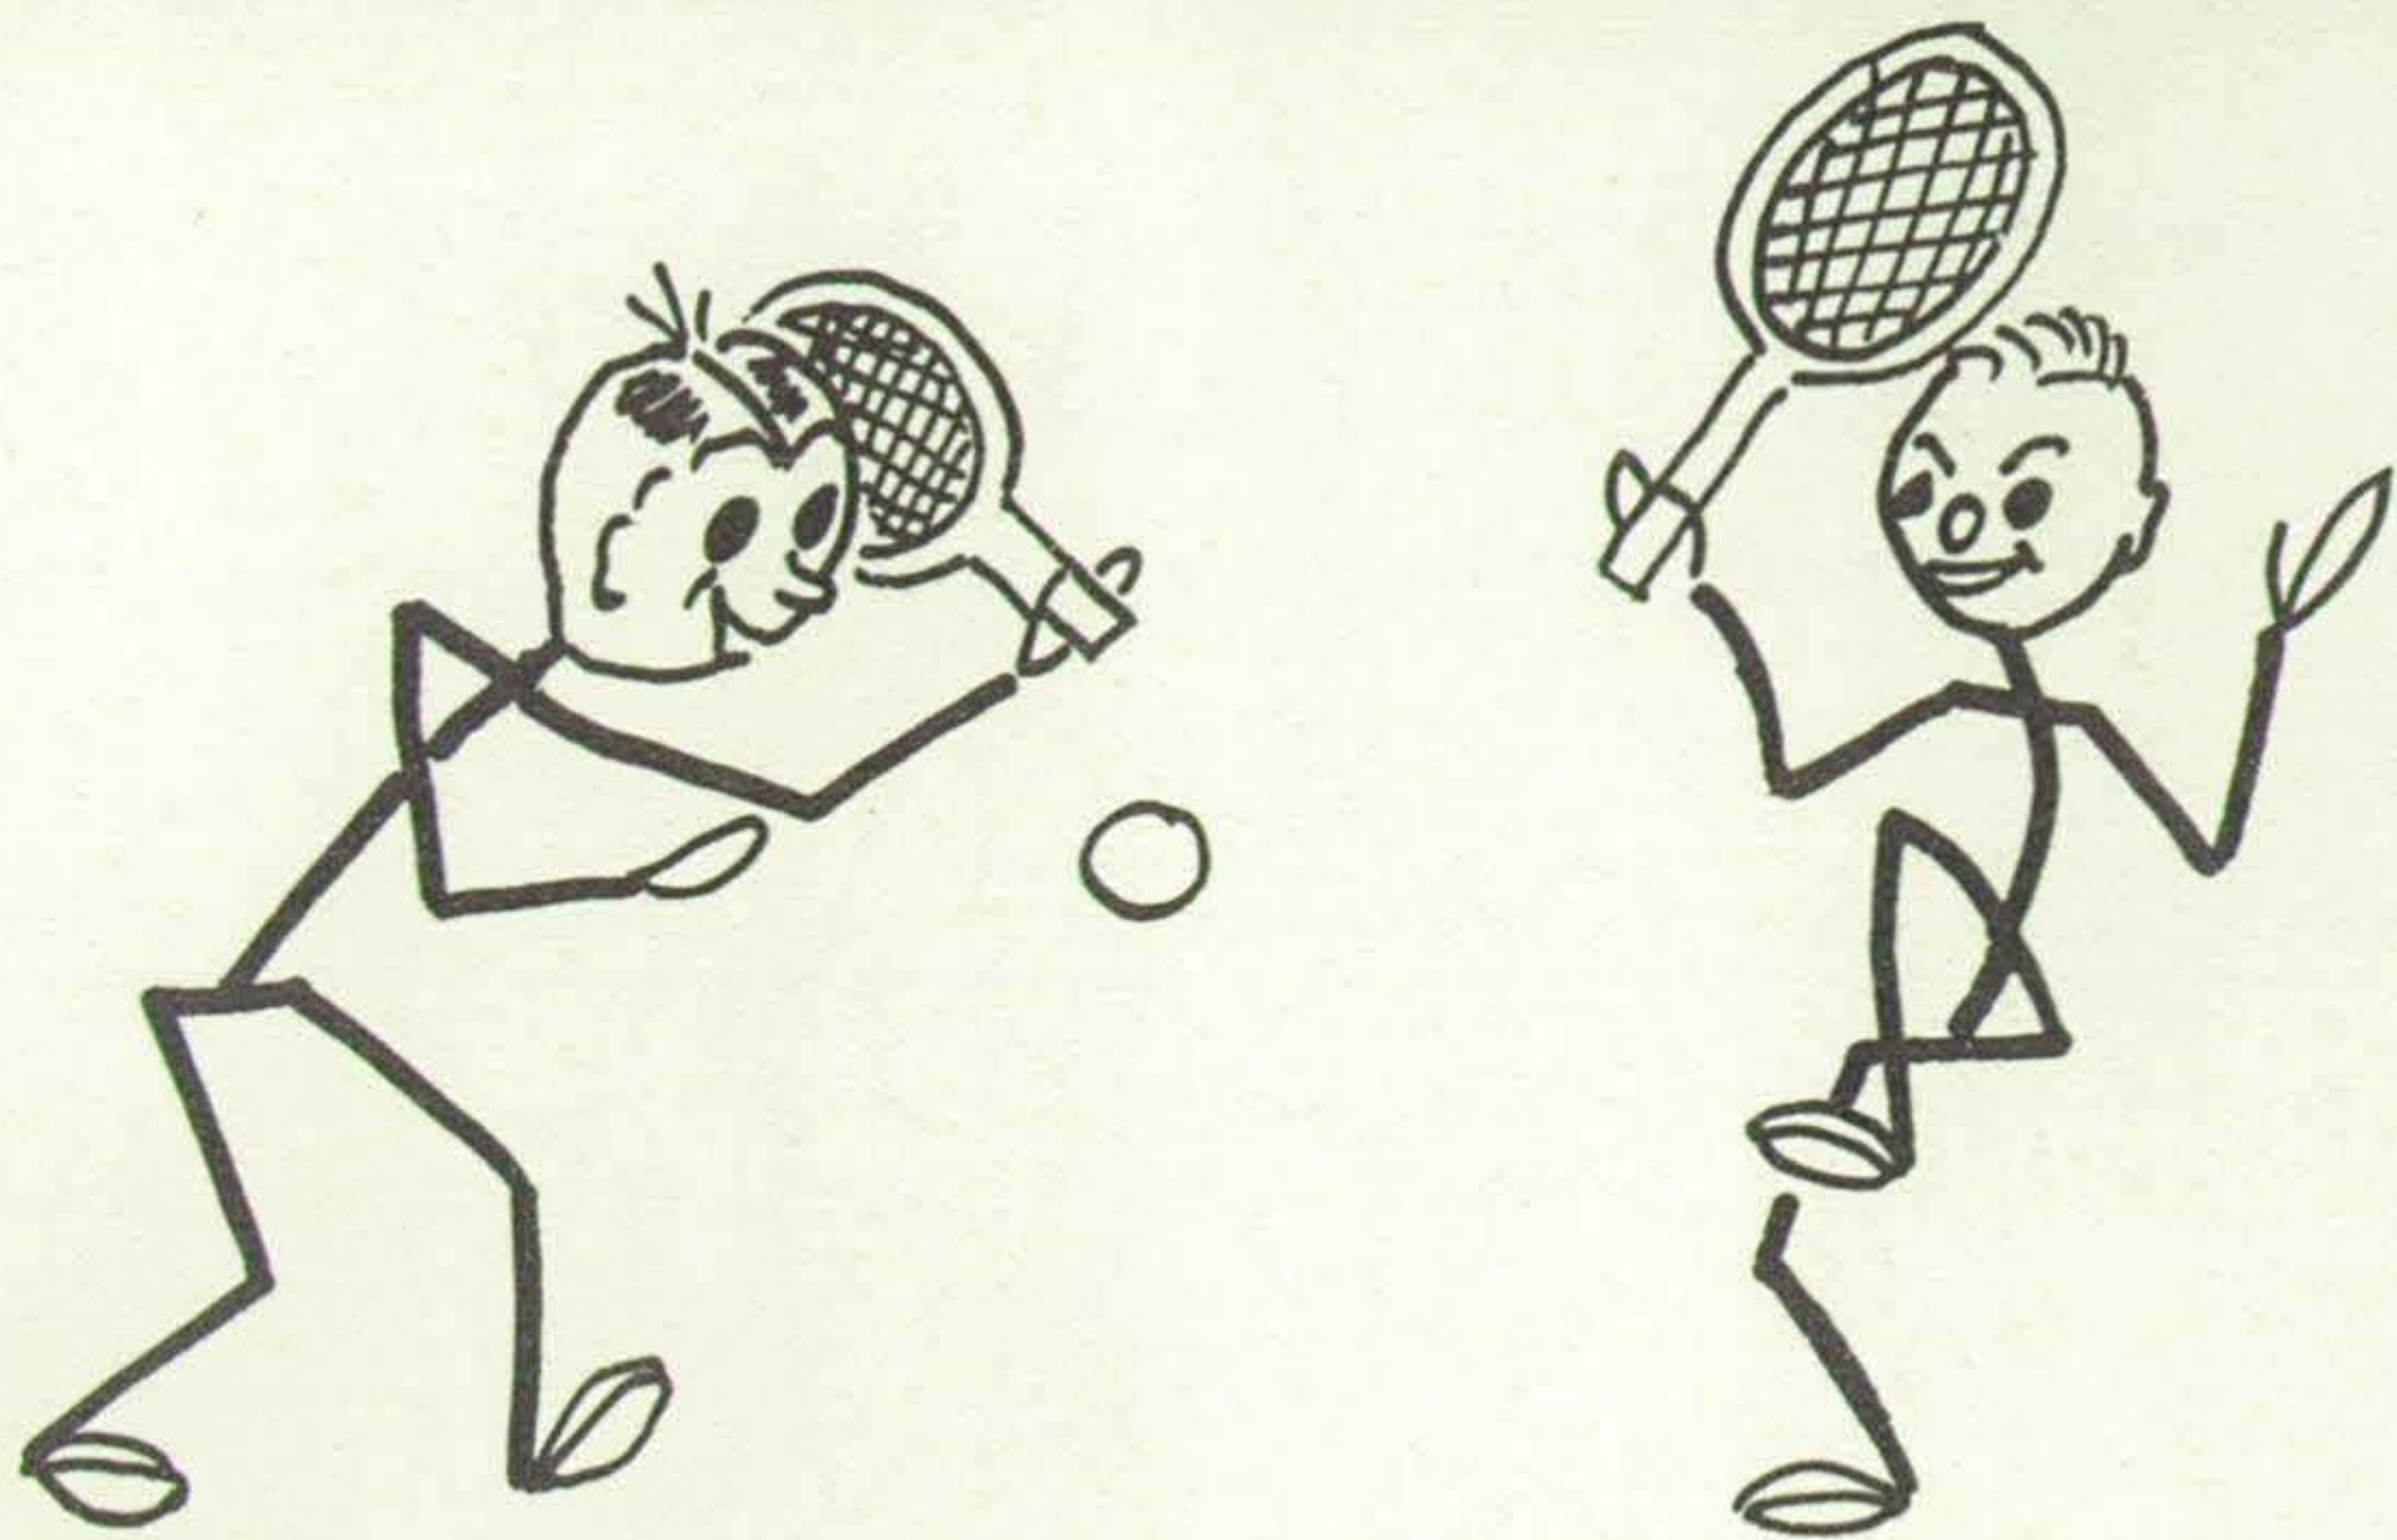

STANDING: C. Pierre, J. Franda, Mrs. Brown, Miss Tweet, M. Willem, L. Pavlik, P. Alexander, J. Lampereur, P. Wautier.
SEATED: J. Kaye, D. Matzke, C. Meister, P. Retzlaff, S. Kohlbeck.

The monthly publication of the "Nine Till Four", our school paper, continued again this year. A hard job, but to the retired senior staff, we can only say, a job well done!

Under the direction of Bertha Nellis, editor; Shirley Lampereur, assistant editor, the "Nine Till Four" was a real success. We're sure the Jr. Class took over the responsibility of the publication at the second semester with Carol Meister editor and Pat Retzlaff, assistant editor.
